

HOMWORK WATCHER MESSAGES

February 26, 2010

Don't forget the I-STEP+ Testing begins next week. Please defer any appointments and have students here on time. They need to be rested and to have had a nutritious breakfast so they can be at their very best physically and mentally for these tests.

St. Patrick's Day Hats are still being sold for $2.00 each. Remember students may wear jeans with their hats on St. Patrick's Day and the proceeds will benefit Keegan's Clan.
